

UNIVERSITY MISSOURIAN.

VOLUME II.

COLUMBIA, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 1910.

NUMBER 144.

TAKING OF CENSUS BEGINS TOMORROW

Seven Enumerators Appointed to Cover Columbia—Two Negroes.

MONTH TO DO THE WORK IN

Men Will be Paid by the Number of Names They Obtain.

Seven enumerators will start tomorrow to take the census of Columbia. W. C. Irwin, of Jefferson City, enumerator for this district, has appointed the following men for Columbia: J. M. Jacks, E. T. McMillan, John Sampson, Clyde Shepard, Theodore Martin and William Ridgeway. The last two are negroes. They passed a civil service examination. The others were appointed. E. A. Remley, postmaster for Columbia, said this morning that he had not received the name of the seventh enumerator.

A Month To Do the Work.
These census-takers have a month in which to get the records of all the persons assigned to them. University students whose permanent homes are not in Columbia will not be counted. The names of students will be given to the census enumerators at their homes. Even if a man is not a student, but is boarding, he will not be counted.

It is not thought there will be more than fifteen days' work in any of the districts allotted to the enumerators.

They are paid 2½ cents for every person they enumerate. The enumerators for the county, however, who have to report farms, are paid 30 cents for every farm in addition to 2½ cents for every person on that farm. They get 20 cents for reporting a productive establishment, and 20 cents for a slaughter house. In 1900 they received only 17½ cents for each farm. Twenty-five enumerators have been appointed for this county.

Schedule Sent to Farmers in Advance.
A schedule is sent out to farmers by the Department of Commerce and Labor in advance of the visit of the enumerators. The farmers answer all the questions on this schedule before the census-takers come, so that they can get these facts at once.

Some of the questions are: How many boxes of pomeloes do you raise? How much land have you under glass? How many fowls have you over three months old? How many animals were born on your farm after January 1, 1910? How many goats and kids have you?

FORTY ALUMNI HEARD FROM

Dr. Bek Traces Missing Graduates Through University Missourian.

Of the fifty-seven missing alumni who have been graduated since 1906, Dr. W. G. Bek, alumni recorder of the University of Missouri Alumni association, has heard indirectly from forty.

Each year post cards to be filled out with the address and occupation are sent with a letter urging the alumni to help keep up the records. On April 6 the University Missourian printed the names of the missing members and since then the information has been coming in daily.

The Alumni association is planning to receive the alumni paper. It will be published in May and the association hopes to issue it monthly after that time.

DEAN SHAW'S REPORT OUT SOON

Copies to be Distributed to Citizens Before Council Acts.

The report on water and lights in Columbia by Dean H. B. Shaw will be ready for distribution tomorrow or Saturday. The contract for printing has been let to the E. W. Stephens Publishing company. About 2,500 copies will be issued.

Dean Shaw's report recommends that $125,000 be expended to improve the city water and light service. The report will be distributed among the citizens of Columbia before any action is taken in the matter by the city council.

SCENE OF PLAY ON POSTCARDS

Plan of University Women to Increase the May-Day Receipts.

One of the leading scenes in "As You Like It," the May-day play to be given by the university women this year, will be put on postcards soon. Next Saturday members of the cast in this scene will dress in costumes and have their pictures taken as they will appear in the scene. The object is to increase the day's profits by the receipts from the sale of the postcards.

MORE RAIN FOR TONIGHT

Weather Probably Cooler Tomorrow, Says Forecast.

The weather forecast for Columbia and vicinity is: "Showers tonight or Friday; warmer tonight; probably cooler tomorrow." The temperatures: 7 a.m. 57 11 a.m. 71 8 a.m. 69 12 noon 65 9 a.m. 65 1 p.m. 63 10 a.m. 68 2 p.m. 67

ADVERTISING EXPERT COMING

President Hill Announces Other Speakers for Editor's Week.

President A. Ross Hill of the University of Missouri announced today additional speakers for Editors' Week at the University of Missouri, May 3 to 14. J. H. Craig, advertising writer of St. Louis, will lecture daily on the preparation of advertising copy, with special reference to the needs of the retail merchant. W. G. Bryan, business manager of the St. Louis Star, will speak Tuesday afternoon, May 10, on "The Getting of Advertising."

Cornelius Roach secretary of state, formerly editor of the Carthage Democrat, John E. Swanger, state bank examiner, formerly editor of the Milan Republican, and Bart B. Howard, of the Joplin Globe, will speak Wednesday afternoon, May 11, on "The Editorial Page"; W. C. Kapp, of the Warrensburg Journal Democrat; Roy A. McCoy, of the Hamilton Hamiltonian, and Dick Howard, of the Amsterdam Enterprise, Friday afternoon, May 13, on "Circulation"; R. R. Gilbert, of the Lincoln Independent. J. L. Ritzenthaler, of the Salisbury Press-Spectator, and F. C. Wright, of the Platte City Argus, on "Office Equipment," and James M. Irvine, of the St. Joseph Fruit Grower, on "The Newspaper's Obligation to the Farmer," Saturday morning, May 14.

"QUEEN" TO PLAY VIOLA

Miss Raithel, Savitar Contest Winner, Has Part in "Twelfth Night."

Miss Jessie Raithel, of Kansas City, the winner of the Savitar contest as the most popular girl at the University of Missouri, will play Viola, the leading part in "Twelfth Night," which is to be produced by the University Players April 21. Fifteen persons will be in the cast of the play.

The club is planning to take the play to Kansas City some time in May. Leslie Hohman, manager of the players, will go to Kansas City next Saturday to arrange for the production of the play in that city. While in Kansas City he will also arrange for the costumes to be used Thursday night.

The play will be given in the university auditorium. The date was changed from April 20 to April 21, because of a play at a downtown theater.

Dr. H. M. Belden and Prof. A. H. R. Fairchild are training the players. The University Players gave "Old Heidelberg" at the Columbia theater last winter.

WINSCOTT QUILTS AS UMPIRE

Columbia Man Will Not Call Balls and Strikes in South This Summer.

A. J. ("Andy") Winscott, for twelve years an umpire in the Southern and Texas leagues, will not hold the indicator this summer. Mr. Winscott is a printer at the E. W. Stephens Publishing company's plant and had the job of "making up" the University Missourian last year. It has been his custom to work at his trade in the winter, between baseball seasons.

This summer Mr. Winscott will become head proof reader at the Stephens plant. He is to take the place of C. Bernard Austin, who has accepted a position as assistant registrar of the American Trotting association, of Chicago.

Mr. Winscott says he gave up umpiring because of the excessive heat in the South and because he did not want to leave his family. He lives at 406 Matthews Street. He has umpired a number of Varsity baseball games on Rollins Field.

MISSOURIAN TO MOVE MAY 1

Newspaper Will Occupy Modern Office at 17 North Eighth Street.

The University Missourian will be printed in the C. B. Miller building at 17 North Eighth Street, between Broadway and Walnut Street. C. C. Howard yesterday afternoon leased the building for the use of the University Missourian, which will be moved to its new home about May 1. The building is now being remodeled. It will be a model modern newspaper office.

POMMER TO SEE HADLEY

Conference in Jefferson City About the State Song.

W. H. Pommer, professor of music in the University of Missouri, went this morning to Jefferson City to discuss with Governor Hadley matters relating to the state song contest.

MISS RAITHEL IS THE "SAVITAR QUEEN"

Kansas City Girl Polls 378 Votes in Student Popularity Contest.

MISS BROWN IS SECOND

"Workers" Canvassed the University in Closing Hours of Election.

Miss Jessie Raithel, of Kansas City, was voted the most popular girl in the University of Missouri in the Savitar contest which closed last night. She received 378 votes out of a total of 1836 cast. Miss Elsie Brown was her nearest competitor.

Miss Raithel is a sophomore in the College of Arts and Science and a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority. She will be called the "Savitar Queen" in this year's issue of the student annual and the section of the book devoted to Varsity life will be dedicated to her.

A Rush at the Close.

A crowd of university students ten deep stood around the Savitar ballot box in Academic Hall during the closing hours of the voting yesterday afternoon. Self-appointed workers for the leading candidates made a thorough canvass of the university buildings and the campus to "get out" the vote. It is even hinted that repeating was tried by several of the young men friends of the candidates. One student is said to have tried to cast forty-seven ballots. They were thrown out because all were in the same handwriting.

The excitement among the workers became intense as the hour of closing, 6 o'clock, drew near. Miss Raithel is a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority. Miss Brown of the Kappa Alpha Theta and Miss Laura Snodgrass, who ran third, of the Kappa Kappa Gamma. The contest in the final hours developed into a three-cornered fight among the men friends of the three sororities. Many of the university women also exercised the right of suffrage for the first time in their lives.

Vote on Leading Candidates.

At first many of the students were inclined to take the contest as a joke. Later, however, as bulletins showing the progress of the voting were posted, a genuine interest was aroused. The workers for the various candidates remained faithful until the last ballot was cast.

The vote for the leading candidates follows:

Miss Jessie Raithel, 378; Miss Elsie Brown, 342; Miss Laura Snodgrass, 338; Miss Irene Waugh, 273; Miss Laura Jo Schwabe, 184; scattering, 321.

NO GENERAL TICKET YET

Action Is Postponed Until After Meeting of Curators Next Week.

Definite action on the student all-alumni ticket for the season of 1910-11 has been postponed until after the meeting of the board of curators in Kansas City next Tuesday.

The ticket would admit students to the various activities, such as football, baseball, basketball, debates and track meets. The idea is to encourage a larger attendance of the students at these exercises. The price of the ticket would be considerably less than the total of single admission fees to the various events.

1500 ODD FELLOWS WILL PARADE HERE

Grand Lodge of Missouri to Meet in Columbia May 17 to 19.

CADETS WILL TAKE PART

Former Governor A. M. Dockery Will be Installed as Grand Master.

Fifteen hundred Odd Fellows in the uniform of their order, the cadets of the military department of the University of Missouri and the cadet band will march in a parade through the streets of Columbia Tuesday afternoon, May 17. The parade is part of the program arranged for the meeting of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows of Missouri which will be held here May 17 to 19.

Twenty-five past grand masters of the lodge and the present holder of that office, D. E. Bird, will be among the men present at the convocation. A. M. Dockery, former governor of Missouri, will be installed as grand master for the following year while the lodge is in session here. The grand lodge sessions will be held in the circuit court room of the Boone county courthouse and the sessions of the Rebekahs, an auxiliary organization of the wives of Odd Fellows, will be held in the Christian church. Headquarters will be established at the Athens hotel, half way between the two meeting places.

President A. Ross Hill of the University of Missouri has consented to give the organization a military escort and the cadet band from the military department of the university. The lodge will return this courtesy by giving away to the visiting lodge members 1700 souvenir badges of the meeting with a picture of Academic Hall on each. The badges will have the picture of the main building of the university on a celluloid button with the inscription "University of Missouri" underneath it. This button will be pinned to a ribbon bearing the name of the lodge and telling where the meeting was held, so that both the university and Columbia will be advertised all over the state, the committee says.

The Wabash railway has already made a rate of one and one-half fare for the meeting and other roads are expected to do the same soon.

ATTENDED CHURCH CONVENTION

Three Columbians at Meeting of Presbyterians of Central Missouri.

The Rev. W. W. Elwang, the Rev. H. B. Barks and N. T. Gentry were the Columbia delegates to the semi-annual convention of the Presbyterian churches of Central Missouri at Centralia, which closed yesterday. The Rev. L. B. Tate, of Corea, was moderator of the convention. He spoke on the conditions and affairs in Corea.

Twenty-seven delegates represented seven counties of Central Missouri. The next convention will be held at the Bethel church in Audrain county.

C. B. MILLER TO BUILD

Columbia Shoe Man Will Erect Three-Story Structure at 817 Broadway.

The contract for the erection of a three-story brick structure at 817 Broadway for C. B. Miller, a Columbia shoe merchant, was given to Phillips Brothers, Columbia contractors, this morning. The work on the new building is to begin at once.

PRINT WAS NOT LIKE PAINTING

But Mystery Was Cleared When "Daniel Boone" Picture Was Washed.

When the engraving of Bingham's picture, "Daniel Boone," was hung under the original painting at the Bingham exhibit in Academic Hall, it was found that, except for the figures, the picture was entirely different. The painting has wilder scenery than the engraving and is perhaps more convincing. There seemed two things possible at first. The engraver might have changed the picture when he worked on it, or the picture might not be the original.

When the painting was washed the mystery was cleared. With the cleaning several layers of dust were removed and the picture became brighter and clearer. Now, through the background of the painting what was once supposed to be only sky, are the lines of a hollow tree that coincide with a tree in the engraving. When examined closely behind the clouds other lines may be seen that correspond with those in the engraving. Bingham evidently, after the picture was engraved, painted an entirely new background.

The forty-seven Bingham paintings on exhibition have been lent to the Guild by the following persons: North Todd Gentry, Columbia; Judge James Gibson, Kansas City; Marshall Gordon, Columbia; Mrs. Florence Rollins Gray, Columbia; I. O. Hockaday, Columbia; the Rev. J. T. M. Johnston, Kansas City; J. V. C. Karnes, Kansas City; Dr. Woodson Moss, Columbia; James W. S. Peters, Kansas City; R. B. Price, Columbia; Curtis B. Rollins, Columbia; Edward T. Rollins, Columbia; George Bingham Rollins, Columbia; Mrs. Anna Hockaday Smith, Columbia; Mrs. J. W. Stone, Columbia; Mrs. J. C. Whitten, Columbia; the City Art Museum, St. Louis; the Findlay Art company, Kansas City; the Mercantile Library association, St. Louis; the Public library, Kansas City.

NOMINATE COLLECTOR

Democrats Voting on Five Candidates in the Primary Today.

Five candidates for city collector are being voted on in the democratic primary today. The office was made vacant recently by the death of W. T. Waters. His successor will be chosen by a special election May 3.

The candidates for the nomination on the Democratic ticket are R. J. Bouchelle, J. E. Hooe, G. L. Norvell, W. H. Leonard and W. S. St. Clair. The voting in the morning was fairly heavy in each ward except the second. All the voting is at the courthouse.

The election officers are: First ward—Judges, C. C. Hopper, J. F. Whitesides; clerk, G. W. Norris. Second ward—Judges, W. E. Kellher, J. E. Whittle; clerk, R. J. Pirkey. Third ward—Judges, N. B. Green, L. H. Edwards; clerk, E. G. McAllister. Fourth ward—Judges, H. A. Collier, R. F. Cunningham; clerk, P. J. Mitchell.

So far as could be learned today from various Republicans of Columbia, there will be no candidate for city collector from that party. A candidate must either be nominated by a primary or a petition. The Republicans are not holding a primary today, which is the last opportunity they have, as the candidate must be nominated fifteen days before the election. "We are not holding a primary," said James W. Schwabe, "and I do not know of any candidates that are being nominated by petition."

E. A. Remley was also ignorant of any Republican candidate.

RECITAL SATURDAY NIGHT

Miss Grove and Miss Buxton to be in Exercises at Christian College.

Miss Helen Cornelia Grove, of Trenton, Mo., and Miss Virginia Boyd Barton, of Nashville, Ark., will appear in the graduating recital of the school of expression of Christian College in the college auditorium Saturday night. Miss Grove will be graduated this year and Miss Buxton will be given her post-graduate degree.

The school of expression is under the direction of Miss Louise Forsythe. This recital is open to the public.

JUDGE LAWSON NOW IN ROME

After June 1 He Will Go to England for a Visit There.

W. R. Benson, an assistant in the School of Law, received a card yesterday from Judge John D. Lawson, dean of the School of Law, who has gone to Europe to study the European methods of criminal procedure. In the card, which was dated at Rome, Judge Lawson says he will complete his trip through Italy about June 1, after which he will visit in England.

JAMES EADS HOW HERE HOBO DAY

"King of Hoboes" will Address "Convention" in Auditorium April 30.

HE WANTS "CO-EDS" THERE

Right of Life, Liberty and Employment in Missouri. His Subject.

James Eads How, "King of the Hoboes," will be in Columbia Hobo Day, April 30. He expects to have a good time during the day. In the evening he will lecture, and he wants all of the university women and the city clergy to be present. How holds some pointed opinions, and he is going to tell about them that night. He does not believe in developing hoboes. He warns youths to keep off "the road," saying that 60,000 young men are now tramps. He thinks the nomadic life sends men to "smithereens." He calls the Vanderbilts and Goulds millionaires like himself, because they do not work.

"Young men get ruined on the road," he said in an interview in St. Louis this week. "I want the girl students of Missouri University and the clergy of the city to hear my address. I insist that the students give me serious consideration at night, although I don't mind the fun they will have that day. I shall speak from a sociological standpoint, and will warn all young men to keep off 'the road.'"

Invited by McElvain.

How was invited by a brother "hobo," William W. McElvain, of the Hobo Convention committee, who has a mileage of 20,000 miles. How will come under the auspices of the Social Science club and the Hobo Convention. In replying to Mr. McElvain's letter requesting him to come, How said:

"I have been East and just got your kind invitation on returning. I should be glad to be with you all on April 30, if all is well, and to speak to the members of the convention a short time that night. If there is no objection, my theme will be 'The Right to Life, Liberty and Employment in Missouri.' And pardon me should I suggest that for the evening's session you also invite the 'co-eds' and 'sister hoboes' as well as any really sympathetic ministers of the church, so that for a very brief time the pathos and seriousness of the great (hobo) problem may be thought out."

He'll Preside at State Rally.

Although How will preside at a state rally in Sedalia which will begin April 30, he decided to accept the Columbia invitation unconditionally.

"Why don't they invite some other millionaire hoboes, such as the Vanderbilts and others who don't work?" How asked when he opened the invitation in St. Louis. "I trust that the students of the university have arranged to allow free access to Columbia before the convention. Stone piles and such things might diminish the attendance, and I should like a large audience."

NEGRO FINED $5 FOR FIGHTING

Struck a White Boy at Baseball Game Saturday.

Hubert Hughes, a negro 16 years old, was fined $5 and costs this morning for fighting at the baseball game on Rollins Field last Saturday. One of Hughes's brothers was quarreling with George McNatt, a white boy 14 years old, when Hubert decided the fight with a few timely blows.

Hughes talked about the fight this morning as he sat on the top of his cell playing cards with the two other prisoners in the holdover. One of his partners was a white man about 20 years old, the other a negro about 25. Hughes said he had never seen McNatt before the day of the fight and that he didn't know what his brother was quarreling about. Hughes's mother works at the University Military Academy.

TOO MANY ATTEND FIRES

Chief Says Whistle Is the Cause and Wants It Muffled.

"I have put a stop to the sounding of the fire whistle when there is a fire," said A. G. Newman, chief of the Columbia fire department, yesterday. "It attracts great crowds of spectators who stand around and get in my way and make it very hard to put out the fires."

The fire whistle is on the engine at the E. W. Stephens Publishing company's plant. At that plant this morning it was said that no orders to muffle the whistle had been received.
